

FAITH AND JUSTICE ON THE BORDER DELEGATION WITH BORDERLINKS

JULY 28-AUGUST 2, 2008

BorderLinks invites you to join other people of faith to experience, reflect, and worship together on the U.S.-Mexico border. The “Faith and Justice on the Border” Delegation will provide a platform for participants to explore border issues with clergy and lay from various faith backgrounds. We will discern how our faith calls us to act on the border and beyond. Delegation themes and visits will include:

- Biblical Reflection
- The Migrant Experience
- Border Militarization and Security
- Church as Agent of Change

- Free Trade and Global Economics
- Human Rights and Labor Conditions
- Desert Spirituality
- Faith-Based Humanitarian Movements
